

Belly Exam Social Story

I have an appointment to see my doctor today.

The doctor is going to check my belly.

I lie down on the exam table.

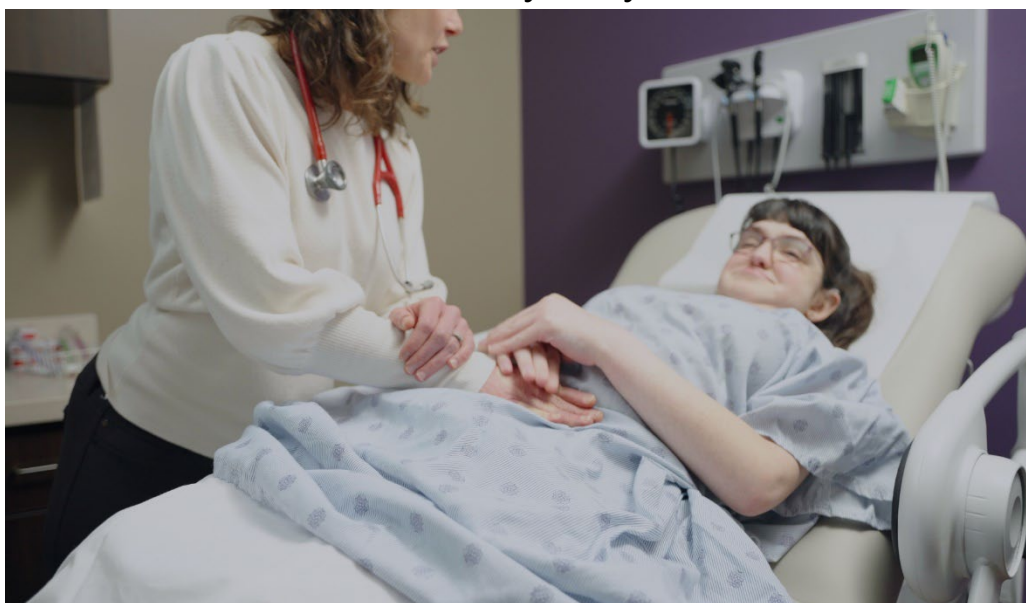

The doctor looks at my belly.

The doctor listens to my belly with a stethoscope.

The doctor feels my belly with hands.

I keep my muscles relaxed. I can bend my knees and hold a helper's hand to help stay relaxed.

After the exam the doctor and I talk about next steps.
