Q&A with NICU Grad Cameron and Mom, Nicole

NN: What were your first thoughts when you saw your baby?

Nicole: I felt immediate relief. Right after, I felt nervous and helpless. I wanted to just to hold him and give him comfort. When I was not able to do that, it was emotional.

NN: What is your favorite NICU memory?

Nicole: The pictures! Ms. Brittany would have a picture of the babies every week to show how progression of our babies. I absolutely loved that! The cute gifts and themes she would have were a bonus.

NN: What was the best/most meaningful part of being a NICU parent?

Nicole: The most meaningful part of being a NICU parent was knowing that I was not alone. Just being in that area of the hospital and coming and going, a lot of emotions are going on simultaneously. Seeing and speaking with other NICU parents brought comfort.

NN: What is life now, after the NICU?

Nicole: Life is well. Baby Cameron still has his challenges, but hey don't we all! He has grown so much to the point where I sometimes remind myself that we did spend time in the NICU. He is our families miracle. He shows us what strength looks like.
